Coffee Corner

We are not your average "Joe"

What sets us apart from other office coffee services is that we appreciate you as our customer. Café to You does and always will have an open door policy. If there is anything we can do to improve our services and products please let us know. We strive daily to provide the best service and products possible. We have gone to great lengths to bring in all of the different systems you have requested. We are now a Flavia Distributor, which means you can now offer your employees cappuccino, lattes and much more in the fascinating unit. We had a taste testing of all the pod single cup products and believe we have secured the best tasting coffee pods and the most reliable pod single serve unit. Our ground bean coffee packets have been custom designed by our roaster to offer you the best ground coffee beans possible. Please keep up the communication with us and we will continue to provide the answers you deserve.
